RONSTOCK June 16th & 17th, 2012 10am-4pm

Mark these dates on your calendar so you do not miss out on this year's RONSTOCK. For those of you who have never been fortunate enough to attend, this is what to expect ... Free Food, Free Art, Free Entertainment, and loads of Fun! We have been inviting our customers and anyone else that they want to bring to our yearly customer appreciation weekend for 18 years. We barbeque up the best hotdogs, offer cold refreshments along with relaxing entertainment and Ron produces new prints to give to you all for FREE! You will meet other art collectors and see new paintings that we unveil. We will have lots of framing specials so bring in your art, hockey jerseys or whatever you have been meaning to get framed. What other place can you have lunch, listen to good music, view some great art, have a few laughs and frame your treasures all in one place? SUCHIU ART has it all! We pride ourselves on not being the usual stuffy art gallery. We are down to earth, like to get to know our customers (who Ron calls his extended Suchiu family) and share some laughter with them. We encourage you to bring your family and friends to share in the fun and receive your Free art gift.

Imagine getting this print for FREE? This was last years gift from artist Ron Suchiu for each family who attended. A $150.00 value.

Own an actual artifact of the Bluenose II... An important part of Canadian history.

Ron Suchiu is never satisfied with producing just an average painting. He always seems to come up with something that makes his art unique to the world and more collectable for his customers. On June 16th Ronald will be unveiling his painting and prints of our countries most famous ship, Bluenose II. Yes the Bluenose that is on the Canadian dime, and has been on many stamps. We can all bet it will be a beautiful rendition, but to make it uniquely Suchiu he is adding an original piece of planking from the Bluenose II for all of the limited edition prints. As an add bonus for the artist proofs and printers proofs he will be added a piece of the original planking along with a large original spike that held the ship together. Now that's a piece of history to be passed down through generations! You may remember the Shearwater with the added piece of original mast?

<http://suchiuart.com/index.php?view=framing&md=1> Imagine having an original piece of the ship? What a Canadian icon. They come with certificates of authenticity (COA) straight from The Bluenose II company. This historic piece of art will come beautifully framed and include the artifacts of the Bluenose II

A very low print run of:

100 signed & numbered framed - $795 plank included

25 artist proofs framed - $1000 plank and spike included

10 press proofs framed - $1250 plank and spike included

50 remarques - $225

Ron contacted John's wife Judy Belushi and told her of a legacy image he wanted to paint of him. She loved his idea and agreed to sign the limited edition prints.

John Belushi— The Twelve Decibels

Thirty years ago, this past March, the world lost a comedic icon that people will be talking about for many decades, John Belushi. Ron contacted John's wife Judy Belushi and told her of the legacy image he wanted to paint of him. She loved his idea and agreed to sign the limited edition prints. How would artist Ronald Suchiu portray all the wonderful and funny characters in one painting that comedian/actor John Belushi created?

This is how this crazy artist's mind works . . . "Perhaps I will have all the characters sitting around a table, maybe the picture itself could embrace that bizarre humor of Belushi's? Maybe my mentor DaVinci wouldn't mind if I borrowed his scene of the Last Supper and replace the twelve disciples with Belushi's loud and zany characters and I will call it the Twelve Decibels! Blasphemy you say . . . it sounds like a skit you would have seen on Saturday Night Live and hey, didn't Disney use that scene? Disney with their all-American values and virtues. DaVinci made up that scene in the 15th century, countless artist have done it since then. Did anyone else see that flash of lightning? Yes, that's it. But wait, wouldn't it be great if all the characters at the table had place cards in front of them except the very last seat. I will leave it empty and on the place card in front of that seat I'll print the customer's name who buys it. Yeh, that's what I'll do!" - exclaimed Ron Suchiu...And so the Twelve Decibels was born.

When Suchiu finishes not only will it show the crisp clean details as if his characters are 3D and jumping off the page, but you know it will make you howl with laughter. That's what Judy Belushi said to Ron as she chuckled, "John would have loved that." Don't wait until RONSTOCK, call and order your print today so you don't miss out!

I'll be fun in your family or entertainment room. I'll make 'em laugh. Toga, Toga, Toga!

TITANIC Stamps

It was 100 years this past April that the TITANIC sank creating many fascinating stories as well as changing many nautical laws that are still used today. The legend of the TITANIC will live on for several hundred years and will captivate people with its representation of the grandeur of its time.

Ron and his family were fortunate enough to personally meet the youngest and the last remaining TITANIC survivor having tea and biscuits at her humble home near Southampton, England.

From the painting Ron Suchiu did of TITANIC he was able to use this image and have Canadian Postage Stamps made. Straight from Canada Post this is a collectable sheet of 20 stamps each with Ron's TITANIC featured on the top of the sheet. These are limited to a very low number of only 250. All are numbered and signed by the artist. I have been calling everyone that has a TITANIC print as many of you are taking these to hang along side your large print. As you may know the limited edition TITANIC print is sold out and has increased in value by over 550%. Quite an investment for those of you who purchased them. We can only assume the same will happen with these TITANIC stamps. There are some left, give us a call to order yours today.

They come to you beautifully framed with a rich marine blue suede mat a complimentary second mat and an exquisite mahogany frame. These pieces are priced ready-to-hang for only $275. If you have a favorite number call and see if it is available.
